Family Time

Luke tells us that Mary and Elizabeth were related. The two women celebrated their pregnancies and were able to depend upon one another. Who are you closest to in your family? How do you depend upon that person?

All through the Bible, God chooses the lowly to do incredible things. Mary was a young, lowly girl – yet God chose her to give birth to Jesus! Even though you're young, God can still use you! Talk with your parents or guardians and ask them what good traits you have that God could use for others. Write them below.
